OUTDOOR EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2010

Nominations

The Outdoor Excellence Awards recognise the highest achievements of individuals and organisations involved in outdoor recreation and education in New Zealand.

The following awards will be presented at the Outdoor Excellence Awards Dinner in Wellington on Friday 24 September 2010.

Education Outdoors NZ Programme Award is awarded to an Outdoor Programme that has demonstrated quality and innovation, and has enabled a greater cognisance of outdoor recreation as a significant dimension of the New Zealand way of life.

2009 winner - St Cuthbert's College ~ Kahunui

NZOIA Emerging Instructor Award recognises someone who has demonstrated enthusiasm, passion for the outdoors and excellence in instructional skills and techniques. The Emerging Instructor seeks to achieve relevant industry qualifications and continues to personally challenge themselves in their own adventures.

2009 winner - Jye Mitchell

MSC Volunteer Award recognises the significant contribution that volunteers make to outdoor recreation and education in New Zealand through freely giving their time, energy and commitment to making a positive difference in the community.

2009 winner - Teressa May

ONZ Facility Award is awarded to an outdoor recreation or education facility that has reduced the barriers for participation in outdoor recreation.

2009 winner - Peel Forest Outdoor Pursuits Centre

Sir Edmund Hillary Outdoor Pursuits Centre Environmental Leadership Award acknowledges individuals or programmes who have influenced the ecological worldview of participants and/or demonstrated a significant commitment to conservation or protection of adventure places.

2009 winner - Dave Irwin

SPARC Supreme Award recognises dedication, commitment and significant contribution to outdoor recreation and education in New Zealand.

2009 winner - Liz Thevenard
